

Metal Jet Production Service<sup>1</sup>

1. HP does not provide manufacturing services. Customers work directly with and pay for manufacturing services provided by a trusted third-party manufacturing partner responsible for fulfilling the order. HP provides design compatibility check for HP Metal Jet printing. Metal Jet Production Service is available in the US and Western Europe.

2. Please make sure the part(s) submitted through the HP Metal Jet Production Service are not subject to ITAR/EAR regulations or prohibited by other laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances.

3. These steps are based on the order volume, design complexity, and other factors, at the discretion of our manufacturing partner. Service availability and fulfillment subject to manufacturing partner discretion.
