

Print Security Landscape, 2022

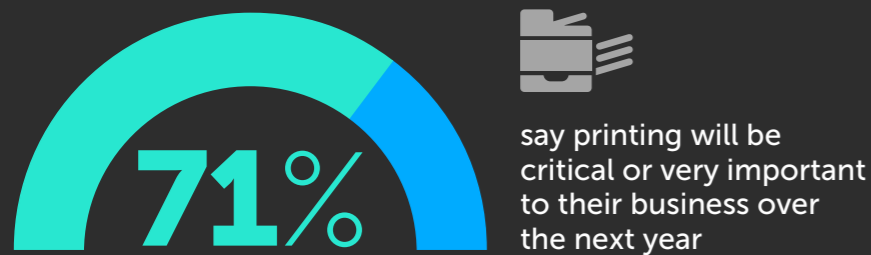

Trends and opportunities for securing the hybrid workplace

Quocirca conducted a study amongst 531 IT Decision Makers across the US, UK, France and Germany

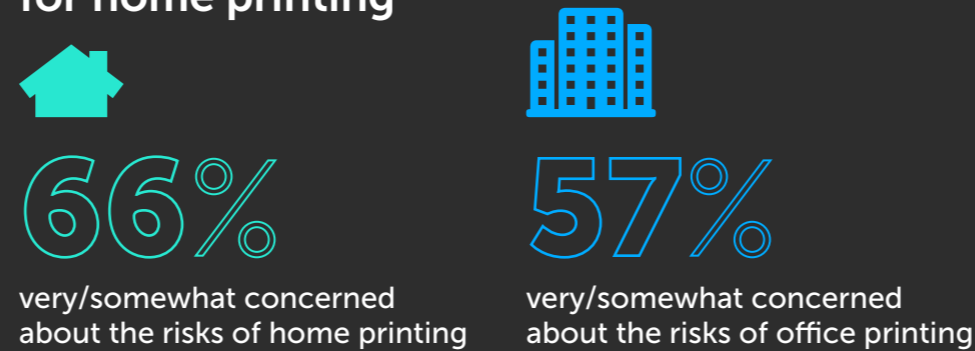

DOWNLOAD
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY FINDINGS

www.quocirca.com

Organisations will remain reliant on printing

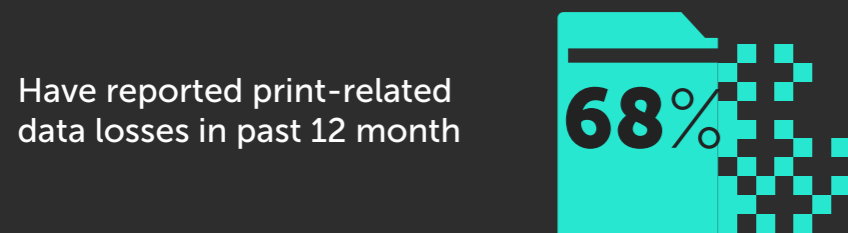

Security concerns are higher for home printing

Security challenges are leading to lower confidence in print security

More than two thirds of organisations reported at least one data loss

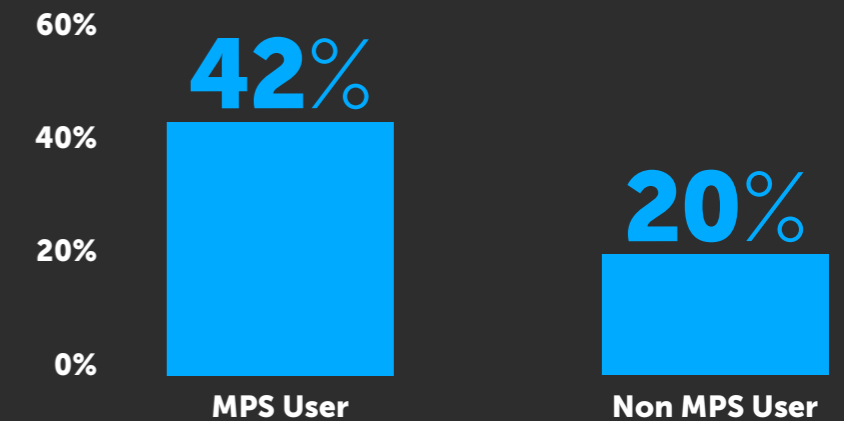

Average cost of a print related data breach

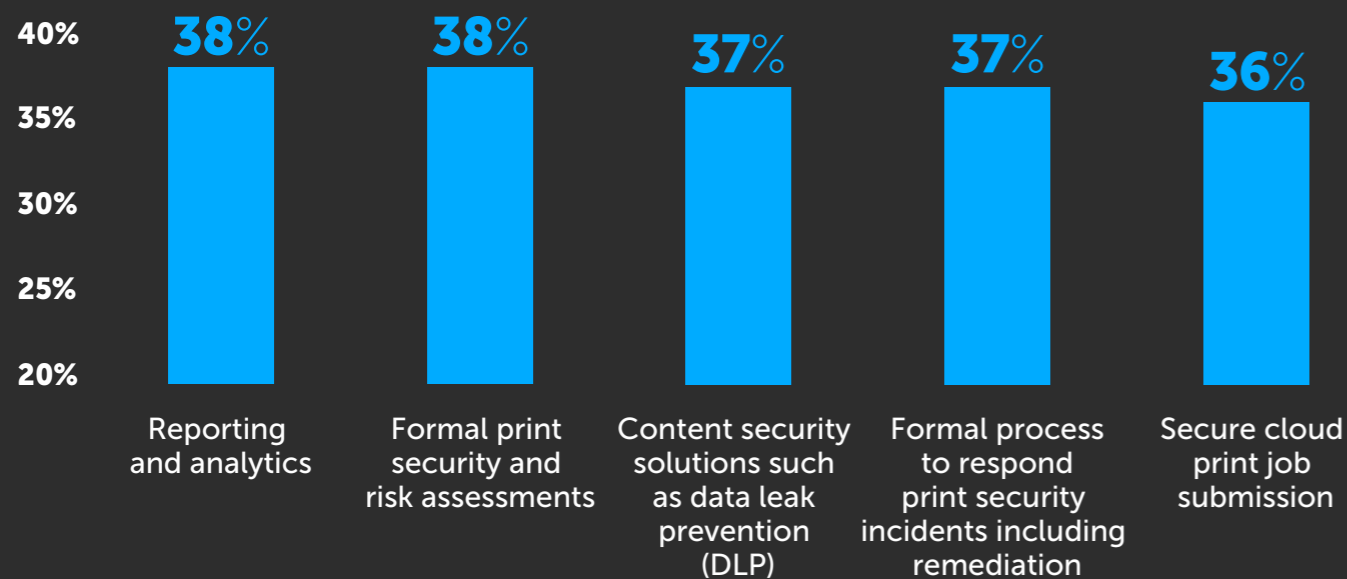

£632k

Those using MPS are most satisfied with their print supplier's security capability

Respondents who said "very satisfied"

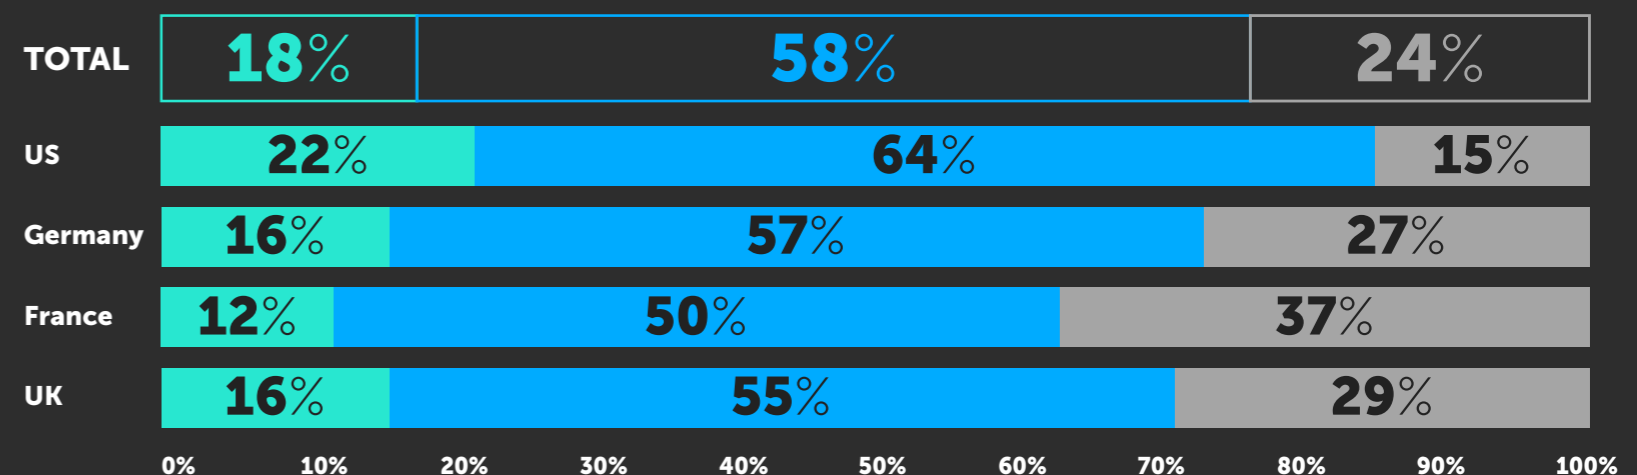

Organisations are adopting a range of print security measures

Quocirca's Print Security Maturity Index *

Leader Follower Laggard

*based on the number of print security measures that have been implemented