

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Teams interface with the Class Notebook application open. The interface is divided into several sections, each highlighted with a callout box:

- Channel hosting class notepad: Points to the 'Class' channel in the left-hand navigation pane.
- Sections: Points to the 'General' section in the left-hand navigation pane.
- Pages: Points to the 'Pages' section in the left-hand navigation pane.
- Access to class notebook: Points to the search bar at the top of the Teams interface.
- Toolbar: Points to the rich text editing toolbar at the top of the notebook page.
- Page content: Points to the main content area of the notebook page.
- Add a section: Points to the 'Add section' button at the bottom of the notebook page.
- Add a page: Points to the 'Add page' button at the bottom of the notebook page.

The notebook page itself contains the following content:

- Header: 'Welcome to Class Notebook'
- Text: 'Your OneNote Class Notebook is a digital notebook for the who handwritten notes, attachments, links, voice, video, and more.'
- Text: 'Each notebook is organized into three parts:'
- List-Group:
  - 1. Student Notebooks – A private space shared between the teacher and ea access every student notebook, while students can only see their own.
  - 2. Content Library – A read-only space where teachers can share handouts
  - 3. Collaboration Space – A space where everyone in your class can share, c
- Image: An illustration of a tablet displaying a notebook page.