The image shows a first-person view of a Minecraft game world. A character in a purple robe is visible in the top-left corner. A control menu is open on the left side of the screen, listing various actions and their corresponding keyboard keys. The game world features a grassy field, wooden houses, and a blue sky with white clouds. A character's hand holding a pickaxe is visible in the bottom-right corner. The interface includes a toolbar at the bottom with a 'Hide Controls' button and a hotbar with several empty slots.
