- Contact: Points to the contact name and status at the top of the chat window.
- Existing chats: Points to the chat list item in the sidebar.
- Sent message: Points to the outgoing message bubble in the chat history.
- Received message: Points to the incoming message bubble in the chat history.
- Space to type message: Points to the text input field at the bottom of the chat window.
- Add emoticons: Points to the smiley face icon in the bottom right of the chat window.
- Upload a file: Points to the upload icon in the bottom right of the chat window.
- Share a file from Drive: Points to the Drive share icon in the bottom right of the chat window.
- Add a videocall: Points to the video call icon in the bottom right of the chat window.
- Send message: Points to the send button (paper plane icon) in the bottom right of the chat window.
