

The screenshot shows the OneNote application interface with several callout boxes highlighting key features:

- Create a new notepad: Points to the '+ New notebook' button in the top navigation bar.
- Search bar to search notepad: Points to the search bar in the top navigation bar.
- Access to OneNote settings options: Points to the gear icon in the top navigation bar.
- Account ID 0365: Points to the user profile icon in the top navigation bar.
- Notepad details: Points to the 'Recent' tab and the list of notebooks in the main content area.
- Access to application menu: Points to the application menu icon in the bottom left corner.

Tab	Item Name	Location	Sharing
Recent	Example 1	Teacher's OneDrive for Business > ... > Documents > Notebooks	Just now	Shared
Recent	Example 2	Teacher's OneDrive for Business > ... > Documents > Notebooks	39m ago	Only you

The image shows a screenshot of the Microsoft OneNote application interface. The interface is divided into several key areas, each highlighted with a callout box and a blue line pointing to the corresponding UI element:

- OneNote Library shows notepad being edited: Points to the top purple header bar.
- Page title: Points to the title bar of the current page, "Page 1 (Section 1)".
- Page content: Points to the main white workspace where text and images are added.
- Options menu and toolbar: Points to the ribbon at the top, which contains various editing tools and options.
- List of sections: Points to the left-hand pane showing a list of sections: "Section 1" and "Section 2".
- List of pages in a section: Points to the sub-pane on the left showing pages within a section: "Page 1 (Section 1)" and "Page 2 (Section 1)".
- Add a page to a section: Points to the "Add page" button at the bottom of the page list.
- Add a section: Points to the "Add section" button at the bottom of the section list.